From the Seneschal

Greetings unto the gentlefolk of the shire of Glenn Linn, from your Seneschal, Lady Frigga Halladottir!

Please look to the offices of Glenn Linn that are listed on page 2 of this newsletter to determine if there is something interesting you might like to try! Currently the open positions are: Chronicler, Chatelaine/Castellan, Chirurgion, Web Minister, deputy Seneschal, deputy Knight Marshal, deputy Minister of Arts and Science, deputy Minister of the Lists. Descriptions of each office can be located by clicking on the respective office title on the EK Royalty and Officer web page: <http://www.eastkingdom.org/officers.html>

There are many more places you can help without becoming an officer for Glenn Linn. Please insert yourself wherever there may be a need, where ever you may see a need or if you are interested in something to happen in Glenn Linn. There are many places to find new friends and fun work during events as well. Ask the event autocrat or just ask someone at Troll/gate where you may help. You will receive a smile, hearty thanks, and most likely more than one new SCAdian friend in return for a bit of your time in making an event run smoother!

Here's wishing everyone has a healthy spring and hoping everyone has safe travels this year!

Northern Region Arts & Science Championship at Panteria, May 22-25

Greetings unto the artisans and scholars of the East Kingdom!

I write to remind you all that Panteria is but a few weeks away, and we have A&S coming out of our ears this year. Not only do we have a roster of classes being lined up, but the Northern Region A&S Championships as well!

If you are interested in teaching a class, running a round table, holding a meeting, or doing a demo, please contact me with the details of your session, including time slot desired, space and equipment requested, minimum age limit (if any), costs to participate (if any), how long the meeting would be, and a brief description of your planned activity, by Monday, May 11th, so I can put the schedule together, and hopefully get it published on our website.

The Northern Region Championship is open to entrants from throughout the Region, and to judges from anywhere in the Known World. Her Majesty's Queen's A&S Champion, Lady Alheydis von Riga, is from the Northern Region, and has kindly agreed to head up our Judging Staff. This is a body of work competition, a la K&Q's, so bring 1-5 entries, and their documentation on Saturday, May 23rd. Related entries (five embroideries, for example) will be judged as a group, but diverse arts will be judged individually, and have their scores averaged to compute our winning score. Times are still TBA, but set-up will need to be completed around lunch time, to allow our judges ample opportunity to look at your work before we have to take everything down again at 4 PM to prepare for feast. Entries by proxy are permitted, but be aware that many judges like to discuss work with artisans, so proxy entries are likely to be at a disadvantage, and that such entrants need to secure their own help to get their entry set up and taken down again, as our staff will not be available to do this for them. (Please note also that unless you contact me, oh, right now, there is no chance I'll be able to line up judges for either research papers or musical compositions, sorry.)

ALL entrants and judges in the Northern Region A&S Championship are asked to pretty please contact me, Lady Albreda Aylese, by Saturday May 16th, to aid in my planning. This is the first time this event is being held in a long time, so I have NO idea how many entrants or judges we'll have, and letting me get some idea of whom to expect before arriving on site will hopefully keep me from having an anxiety-induced coronary.

Thank you very much, and see you at Panteria!

Exchequer

EOY report is complete.

Balance (2/28/09) given. Does not include outstanding checks for B&B and recent workshop reimbursements. Karl will be added as deputy Exchequer on the account before the next business meeting.

Minister of Arts and Sciences

Quarterly report to EK sent.

A&S Sewing Circle have been meeting in the Red Cross room, where several classes have been offered: 1/20 smocking/beginning apron, 1/27 needlepoint stitches (basic, create trim for your tunic), 2/3 edging and seams

(how to decorate your tunic), 2/17 leather sewing (scissor or knife case) and crossbow construction, 2/24 crossbow string construction/open A&S, 3/3 open A&S, 3/10 wire bracelet (Viking wire weaving by Frigga), 3/17 bowstring jig construction. Future: soapstone carving and pewter casting 4/21 (tentative), mead making. Athena's Thimble: 3/1 stitchers dozen (free style stitches), 4/26 Barony project, 4/4 bus trip to Bard College for the embroidery exhibit.

The Gathering of Knitters: 2/22 continue current projects, 3/29 socks, 4/19, and 5/24 at War of Roses.

Blades&Blarney A&S: No one attended the classes, would suggest that A&S room be off main room/or in main room, so the fencing can be watched while projects are worked on. No one met the Maker's Choice Challenge, the dragon mugs will be held for another contest or prize (ie NRWC?).

Knight Marshal

Rattan practices are Wednesday, 6pm, at the indoor site in Gansevoort.

Youth is still on hold. And currently there is no hope to have fencing local – need a marshal.

Practices will most likely resume outdoors mid-April!

Possible next winter practice site? No more than $500/year for rental, need from October until April. Karl is looking at using the basement of the Charlie Wood Theater (larger and better lit than current winter site). Frigga is willing to also check the armory in Glens Falls.

Minister of Lists

Report filed. Looking for deputy. Blades&Blarney had twelve fencers.

Chatelaine

Demos: Water Walk-confirmed (May 12), Corinth anniversary celebration-? (Spring), Celtic Festival for the Red Cross-same weekend as MSS- unfortunately will have to decline GL's participation (Sept 12).

Frigga was contacted by someone currently in Antveldt who will be moving to the Glens Falls area and is interested in becoming Glenn Linn's Chronicler.
